INTERNATIONAL GLOBAL SHORTWAVE CLUB

March 1, 2024

Dear Shortwave Club member:

If you are looking for a new radio, I recently found one you might like. It is a Raddy RF206 Shortwave Radio, FM/AM/SW, 8W Speaker, LCD Display, Bluetooth 5.0, and Trans-Flash Card (the first tiniest memory card of the fingernail size) with USB Play.

The RF206 covers AM and FM for everyday listening and goes beyond with a broader shortwave band (SW:2.3000-23.000MHZ). This versatility allows you to tune in to various stations and enjoy diverse content.

Record your favorite shows on the Trans-Flash Card and play them back through Bluetooth or headphones. You can navigate easily with the large LCD featuring a backlight and the big buttons with a locking function. The device includes large volume and tuning knobs and a portable handle for on-the-go convenience.

This radio is new to the market (January 10, 2024), so there were no reviews, but you can buy it on Amazon for only $34.99, and members get free shipping! The best thing about Amazon is that you can return any item you are unhappy with and get a full refund, so if you are in the market, there is no risk in trying out this new radio.

Good listening!

William Davis
